SOPHIE ARTEMIGI

Game Designer

Lead Design Roles

Hook Up

2021
(9 month project)

- 'Hook Up' is a text based mobile game for Android/ IOS.
- I led a team of three people to produce a polished game using all original assets well within the deadline.

Barely There

2020
(1 month project)

- 'Barely There' is an absurdist horror walking sim for PC.
- I co-designed the game and coordinated a team of six people spanning two countries.
- By the end of one month we were able to feature the game in The Big Indie Pitch and other showcases.

Support Design Roles

Gravity Commando (Narrative Designer)

2021

- I co-designed this game's narrative with Alexis Martineau. We wrote and edited a script that emphasised the core mechanics of the game whilst keeping with its 80's retro-futuristic style

Zellige (UX/UI Designer)

2021

- I designed the UI screens to highlight the game's Andalusian aesthetic and to allow the player to transition seamlessly between the 2D and 3D gameplay.
- I worked with the designer to help streamline the user interaction for the tile making mechanic.
